2 Peter 1:10-21
A Refreshing Reminder
Sermon Notes

2 Peter 1:10-11
*Christian calling and Christian living go together.
*The eternal, future kingdom of Christ should motivate us to live for Him.
*Commit to walking the walk and talking the talk, it is worth it.

2 Peter 1:12
*When truth is not revisited, truth becomes neglected; and when truth becomes neglected, truth becomes dulled.
*We need reminders so that truth will help us grow, it requires repetition and discipline.

2 Peter 1:13-15
*We live in temporary bodies, so we need to use our time and abilities wisely; as we are reminded of truth, we need to share our knowledge.

2 Peter 1:16
*Matthew 17:1-8—Peter was an eyewitness of the knowledge about Christ and Christ's power.

2 Peter 1:17-18
*Daniel 7:14—Jesus is the promised Messiah.
*The truth of Jesus in the Old Testament writings, is the same Jesus of which Peter knew and teaches about.

2 Peter 1:19
*Let the light of God's Word show those dirty areas of your life where you still need to grow.
*2 Corinthains 3:18—As we grow, we are transformed into the image of Christ.
*1 John 3:2—Continue in your growth, until Christ returns.
*2 Timothy 3:16-17—Let your life be governed by God's Word and you will be prepared for anything and everything.

2 Peter 1:20-21
*God's Word is God's Word through the Holy Spirit.
*Scripture is God's authoritative inerrant truth.
*Acts 27:15-17—As the prophets wrote down God's Word, they were carried along by the Spirit. They were obediently and receptively driven to write as the Holy Spirit directed.
*Scripture needs to be accepted faithfully, studied carefully, and interpreted responsible.
*We need the reminders in Scripture so that we don't grow comfortable, so that we don't forget about our excitement to pursue our Lord.

Scripture is a refreshing reminder for all of us on how to live for Him.
