Matthew 1:1-17
Grace in the Family Tree
Sermon Notes

Introduction: When the Bible Starts with a List
*The family tree of Jesus tells us who Jesus is.

A Promised King (Matthew 1:1)
*The Son of David-the promised King (2 Samuel 7:16)
*The Son of Abraham-the promised blessing (Gensis 12:2-3)
*God keeps His promises. He is never late. He is always faithful.

A Broken Family (Matthew 1:2-11)
*It's a messy family tree. Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, David and "Uriah's wife".
*Our past doesn't disqualify us, our mistakes don't remove us from God's plan, and our story is not too messy for God to redeem.
*John 8:44—Don't let Satan tell you anything different.

A Global Mission (Unexpected Names in the Line)
*Jesus came for all people of the world.
*There is room in God's story for everyone.

A Faithful God (Matthew 1:12-16)
*Three parts—The rise from Abraham to David. The fall from David to the exile. The waiting from the exile to Christ.
*God was faithfully working through it all.
*And at just the right time...Jesus came.

Your Story Isn't Over (Matthew 1:17)
*A pattern of grace, redemption, and of God taking broken stories and turning them into something beautiful.
*God is still writing stories today. And His grace writes a better story than our past.
*Let God rewrite your story too. No matter where you've been, what you've done, or how messy your story feels, God's grace is greater.

You are not defined by your past, you are defined by the grace of God!
Because in Christ...the story is not yet over.

Matthew 1:1-17
Grace in the Family Tree
Sermon Notes

Introduction: When the Bible Starts with a List
*The family tree of Jesus tells us who Jesus is.

A Promised King (Matthew 1:1)
*The Son of David-the promised King (2 Samuel 7:16)
*The Son of Abraham-the promised blessing (Gensis 12:2-3)
*God keeps His promises. He is never late. He is always faithful.

A Broken Family (Matthew 1:2-11)
*It's a messy family tree. Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, David and "Uriah's wife".
*Our past doesn't disqualify us, our mistakes don't remove us from God's plan, and our story is not too messy for God to redeem.
*John 8:44—Don't let Satan tell you anything different.

A Global Mission (Unexpected Names in the Line)
*Jesus came for all people of the world.
*There is room in God's story for everyone.

A Faithful God (Matthew 1:12-16)
*Three parts—The rise from Abraham to David. The fall from David to the exile. The waiting from the exile to Christ.
*God was faithfully working through it all.
*And at just the right time...Jesus came.

Your Story Isn't Over (Matthew 1:17)
*A pattern of grace, redemption, and of God taking broken stories and turning them into something beautiful.
*God is still writing stories today. And His grace writes a better story than our past.
*Let God rewrite your story too. No matter where you've been, what you've done, or how messy your story feels, God's grace is greater.

You are not defined by your past, you are defined by the grace of God!
Because in Christ...the story is not yet over.